Painters of Trepopulore appeared this day in Consultation.

The Painters of Trepopulore appearing this day in Councill, say that the Dutch at Pullicherry, have inveigled some of their trade, to leave this place & inhabitt there, & that they are now pressing with these to doe the same; wherefore takeing into consideration the Rt. Honble. Compas. orders for encourageing Painters, Weavers, &ca. Artists in cloth & painting, the Land Customers of Cuddalore & Tevenapatam, are ordered to value Tappies at 5 Pags. per double corge, and such Tappies as are sent to Pullicherry by Land to pay 2½ per cent; but there being an order made soon after our arrivall here, that such goods as is sent from hence overland to Porto Novo doe pay 5 per Cent, the same is confirmed, for thô Weavers, Painters, &ca. Artists may leave this place to be protected at Pullicherry yett we conclude they will hardly goe to the unguarded town of Porto Novo; & the Rt. Honble. Compas. revenues by Tappies here, being considerable, the Sea Customers are ordered to receive their Custome on the price of 6½ Pags. per double corge.

Complaint made relateing to Slaves.

There being a complaint made that severall slaves were brot. from the Ackle Nague's woods to the water side to be exported on Shack Nina Mercons ship which lay at an anchor about 2 miles to the southward of our bounds, & that some of the said slaves were stolen from their relations inhabiting here, & considering that such practices are of evill consequence upon many accttts., an order was signed last night, for Gunner Twyman with four souldiers to goe on board Shack Nina's ship & bring her into the Road of Cuddalore, & the owner on shoar, he being an Inhabitant of this place, & took leave of the Governour lately to goe to Queda.

— SEPTEMBER 1697 —

And in sending last night for one particuler child, that was stolen from hence, our Peons discovered about 22 more, who all declared they had been trapand & kidnapt, & the Ockle Nague's People being conscious of their own villany, run away & left them; & said 22 Persons appearing this day before us in Councill, they were Examind, & ordered to be restored to their severall relations, severall of wch. are inhabitants in the Rt. Honble. Companys bounds. THURSDAY 23.

Said Shack Nina's ship being ready to goe on her voyage, considering the near approach of the Monsoon, it is agreed that he & Captain Mockdum Nina give a bond, that his ship shall not touch at any place on the Coast of Cormandell, neither for this voyage nor for future, without leave first had & obtained from the Governour under forfeiture of paying to the Rt. Honble. Company 2000 Pagodas. Capt. Mockdum Nina & Shack Nina give a bond.

The Loop holes of the wall round Cuddalore being too high for the souldiers to make use of, the Paymaster is ordered to gett Coolys to raise the ground in all such places where tis necessary.

Haveing considered that it is necessary to have constantly good stores of arrack in the Garrison, knowing that our Military in case of any reall occasion, cannot subsist without it; & the Steward adviseing that 3 or 4 Martavan Jarrs are empty, their storekeeper is ordered to fill them, there being some of the same arrack to be bought, as was on the 19th August last sold at 39 Pag^{s}. per Leagure, now to be bought at 38 w^{ch}. is very cheap being extraordinary good.

That Mr. Haynes treat with Mr. Calandrini if he requests it about letting the garden sold by him.

Mr. Calandrini not knowing whether his removall will be at the end of January next, Mr. Haynes is orderd to treat wth. him, if he requests it, about letting the garden sold by him, as mentioned in Consultation the 7th of June last, for one year, from the ult^{o}. of January next, att 60 Pag^{s}. per annum, conditionally that he shall pay pro rato to the day of his removall from hence, if it happens before the year expires, att w^{ch}. time said garden is to be delivered into the custody of M^{r}. Administrators & assigns, the sole liberty & priviledge of makeing wine for sale from the produce of grapes, within the R^{t}. Hon^{ble}. Companys bounds here, for the space of seaven years, from the 25th day of March, next the date hereof, prohibiting all persons from selling any wine, within their Hon^{rs}. bounds in this place, That is, wine that shall be made of the produce of grapes, growing here, or within ten miles of this place, dureing the said term, under penalty of forfeiting double the value to the R^{t}. Hon^{ble}. Company, of such wine so disposed of, & if any person or persons shall abuse this liberty, to the prejudice of said Mr. Haynes, then such persons shall be wholly restrained from makeing any wine; Provided the said John Haynes doe pay yearly into the R^{t}. Hon^{ble}. Companys Cash, ten pagodas per annum. But it is agreed & consented to, that if the said John Haynes should not bring the makeing wine to such perfection as may be worth his while to continue the same, that then he is not obliged to pay the above said ten Pag^{s}. per annum longer then he shall continue to make wine for sale; Dated in Fort St. David 18th November 1697.
